SITUATIONS

THIS AUTUMN, AMERICAN ARTIST THEASTER GATES STAGES HIS FIRST UK PUBLIC PROJECT IN BRISTOL AS PART OF BRISTOL 2015 EUROPEAN GREEN CAPITAL.

A REMARKABLE TEMPORARY STRUCTURE WILL RISE UP FROM THE BOMBED OUT REMAINS OF TEMPLE CHURCH IN CENTRAL BRISTOL, TRANSFORMING IT INTO AN INTIMATE GATHERING PLACE IN WHICH TO HEAR THE CITY LIKE NEVER BEFORE.

Hundreds of musicians, performers and speakers from across Bristol will sustain Sanctum through a continuous programme of sound. With the schedule remaining secret, you might find yourself keeping a sole performer company in the early hours, raising the roof over lunch with a blast of gospel or discovering one of Bristol's foremost headlining bands in the evening. Repeat visits are positively encouraged.

Sanctum has been developed through Theaster Gates' encouragement to see and reflect upon the unseen and under-heard.

Free entrance. Open 24 hours a day.

Capacity is limited inside Sanctum to retain intimacy, and therefore some queuing may be necessary at peak times. To guarantee an entry time, reservations are available for £5 via www.sanctumbristol.com
